Win US clients one signal at a time

Build the approach first, aim it second, deliver it the American way. Quality first, scale second.

1

One signal, the whole funnel

A ready-made, personal sequence for each prospect

- Four US buying signals: a Series A–B round in the last 90 days, a first sales or marketing leader hired, a new CRO or VP Sales, a US launch announced.
- Within 48 hours the prospect gets the full sequence: a founder note that names their signal, a 60-second Founder Studio video, a LinkedIn touch and a GTM Scan offer.
- 50 accounts a week, maximum. Each one researched by AI and checked by a person.

2

Aim where we win

Three US-facing clusters, not one big list

- US Series A–B B2B SaaS and AI companies where sales still run through the founder.
- European and Southeast Asian tech companies entering the US. We already work in both markets, which is our edge.
- VC and PE portfolio companies through fund platform teams: one partnership brings a steady flow of warm intros.

3

Deliver the American way

Proof first, low-risk entry, fast response

- Proof before pitch: 2–3 US case studies with numbers and the team's 70+ years of GTM at US public companies, shown up front.
- A clear ladder: GTM Scan ($890, 72 h) → GTM Map ($9,900) → Cluster Outreach or Product Engineering.
- US business hours (ET/PT), replies within 2 hours, CAN-SPAM-compliant outreach.

90-day pilot · 2 clusters · weekly report: positive replies, meetings booked, Scan → Map conversion

Quantity never eats quality
