Help first, sell second

Every US prospect gets a piece of real Karas expertise before we ever ask for a call.

1

Act on moments, not lists

No signal, no outreach

- Daily signal watch across target US segments: funding rounds, sales-leader hires, US launches (Crunchbase, LinkedIn, Clay).
- A fresh signal moves the account straight into a ready-made, personal sequence. The whole funnel starts at once.
- Focus: US AI and B2B SaaS at Series A–B, plus European and Southeast Asian tech companies launching in the US.

2

Open with a mini GTM Scan

The first message already helps

- Before the first email, AI research plus a Karas expert produce 3 concrete observations on the prospect's positioning, pricing page and sales motion.
- The first touch delivers them, with a short Founder Studio video from Sergey. Next step: the full GTM Scan or a 20-minute call.
- 30–50 accounts a week, every message checked by a person.

3

Earn US trust, then convert

Proof, warm channels, a clear path

- US proof up front: case studies with numbers and the team's 70+ years of GTM at US public companies.
- Warm channels next to outbound: VC platform teams, US revenue communities (Pavilion, RevGenius) and visibility in AI search.
- One path: Scan ($890) → Map ($9,900) → GTM or Product Engineering, with replies within 2 hours in US hours.

Measured weekly: positive replies · meetings booked · Scan → Map conversion

Scale only what converts
