PROFILE

Project manager with six years of running parallel workstreams against dates that cannot move — and a player since 2003 who has lived inside the systems games are built on. I have carried up to 12 complex client projects at once, coordinated 8 specialists, produced live events for audiences up to 3,000, and led teams of up to 20. On the other side of the screen I have raided mythic, held a 4,000+ Raider.IO score and 2,400 arena rating in WoW, and 5,000 MMR in Dota 2 — so progression curves, matchmaking, patch metas and live-service economies are not vocabulary I learned for this application.

I am moving into games production deliberately: U.S.-standards project management training, a month of C programming at 42 Yerevan, and self-taught study of game design and QA fundamentals. I have not shipped a title. What I bring is the unglamorous half of production — scope, schedules, dependencies, written process and follow-through — paired with genuine fluency in the product.

CORE SKILLS

- Production. project coordination · scope and milestone planning · Gantt charts · Agile/Scrum ceremonies · backlog and task tracking · risk and dependency tracking · release and event coordination against fixed dates
- Team & process. cross-functional coordination · leading teams up to 20 · vendor management · writing specs, checklists and process documentation · acceptance criteria and quality review · onboarding and training
- Games. self-taught game design and QA fundamentals · bug reporting with clean reproduction steps · UX and player-flow thinking · systems and economy literacy across MMO, MOBA, FPS, RTS and F2P mobile
- Tools. Jira · Confluence · Notion · Trello · Monday · Bitrix24 · Google Analytics · Google Workspace · MS Office

GAMES — DOMAIN CREDIBILITY

- 20+ years across genres. WoW since 2006 (Burning Crusade, WotLK, Cataclysm), Dota 2, CS 1.6 → CS2, Warcraft III: Frozen Throne, League of Legends, Battlerite, Terraria; console (The Last of Us, Mortal Kombat, Skate 2/3); F2P mobile (Clash of Clans, Clash Royale, Rush Royale, Boom Beach, Asphalt).
- Competitive results. Mythic raiding, 4,000+ Raider.IO and 2,400 arena rating (WoW); 5,000 MMR (Dota 2); Big Star status (CS:GO); rank 15k on CS2 official servers. Top fragger on my team at a local CS 1.6 tournament.
- Live-service literacy from the player side. Seasons and battle passes, matchmaking and rating systems, balance patches and meta shifts, retention and monetisation loops in F2P titles — the levers a live game is actually steered with.
