PROFILE

Project manager with hands-on iGaming operating experience on two sides of the industry: marketing inside a live-casino product (operator under NDA), and partner acquisition and traffic monetisation on the affiliate side at Digital Caramel. Around that sits six years of running parallel workstreams to fixed deadlines — up to 12 complex client projects at once with 8 specialists reporting to me — and a legal background that includes contract work and legal support for licensing in specific jurisdictions, which in this industry is not a footnote.

One interview is enough — give me 30 minutes and a real problem from your team, and you'll see how I work.

WHY IGAMING SPECIFICALLY

- Live casino, from the inside. At a live-casino operator I planned, launched and optimised digital campaigns across PPC, paid social, email and SEO support — managing a $3,000 monthly budget, running localised campaigns in three languages, and lifting landing-page conversion by 15%.
- Affiliates and traffic. At Digital Caramel I acquired and onboarded 60 new partners, running roughly 15 active negotiations a week, and worked with leadership on the marketing strategy — including an onboarding rework that cut time-to-live in half.
- Commercial terms. CPA and RevShare negotiation, traffic and metric analysis, ad networks, and coordination with AdOps, design, content, product and sales.
- Licensing and contracts. Legal support for licensing in specific jurisdictions, plus six years of civil-contract analysis and claims. Compliance conversations do not need translating for me.
- Delivery discipline. 200+ parallel court cases and 30+ hearings a week; 12 complex projects at once; live events for up to 3,000 people. High-tempo operations are the normal condition, not the exception.
- Three languages. Armenian C2, Russian C2, English C1 — useful in a market where the team, the partners and the players are rarely in the same language.
